Committee reporting

Curtain Call – Ads – scan QR code, deadline for ads is quickly approaching

Patron ads – you do not get ads in curtain call, this is a separate fundraiser. You can buy bouquets and single flowers also candy grams available

We will also have grill going – come hungry and eat with your family.

Financial reporting – Katie, we are in same spot as Feb. Big expenses, scholarships. Update on enrichment fees ($250) – we did not come close to our goal. We didn't even beat last year. Last year 62%, this year at 59%. We are spending more money than we raised that could be covered by enrichment fees. More volunteers helped out. Please spread the word for the importance of the need. These are not production related, this is for experiences for students. Any ideas on how to help spread the word and get numbers up is appreciated.

Fundraising/Curtain Calls activities. We're hopeful we'll be attending the Applause Awards. All these monies support boosters. 20 for 20 and Applause... if selected to participate, we will have a fundraiser specifically for kids participating in the applause awards. 20 emails requesting 20 dollars to help assist raise money. There's a goal attached: we're feeding/house/taking you down there

Events/hospitality – new parent/student meet and greet. Invites sent out already, got a few back already. Thurs 5/16 in amphitheater, light refreshments, games. Tickets will be offered to Curtain Call as well as a luncheon when new school starts.

Education – Rashada not on. 19 scholarship applications. Interviews will be May 7th at 4pm. Students haven't been notified yet.

Prescreens for current junior class sept 21,22, 28 and 29. Same photographer as last year: Will. Prescreens are the first step in the college process to schedule auditions. Be on the lookout for the link Monday. Headshots: waiting for dates. School is doing it for rising seniors that's all departments except theatre and dance.

6 ads in program right now. It's thin. Keri asks to encourage people to do it as quickly as possible. Put it in by 5/6. Shannon tried to pay for an ad with the link and it didn't let her. Pre-design link wasn't working but it was updated and should be working now. Self-design link seemed to be working. If you still have problems pls reach out.

Table will be set up for digital photos. You can purchase at Curtain Call along with unsold memorabilia from this year (and past years) to raise funds. All photos are up. If you are interested in Crucible photos, they are available in the online store. They are ready to be sent to you.

Plenty of opportunities to volunteer. We have lots of rising senior moms in the box now. They will help you this year. We have lots of people to help out.
